To Parents of Kindergarteners and 4-Year-Olds:

Per Dousman Transportation, older siblings/friends may sit in the front of the bus with Kindergarten and 4-year-old students, but the younger students may not sit in the back of the bus with the older students.

Please review the following rules with your 4-year-olds and kindergarteners.

- Stay off the road while you wait for the bus to arrive.
- Wait until bus come to a complete stop before attempting to enter.
- Sit down as soon as possible. Stay seated and keep your hands and feet to yourself.
- Talk quietly, no shouting.
- Keep book bags and coats out of the aisle.
- Be quiet at railroad crossings.

After leaving the bus:

- Always cross the road at least 10 feet in front of the bus, never behind the bus, and only after getting the signal from the driver.
